The Central Region is at 100.91% as of the June 29 National Membership Report. The Central Region still has only 5 Detachments over 100%. The Detachment of MICHIGAN is inching its membership closer to 107% currently standing at 106.45%. The Detachment of INDIANA is only 0.84% from hitting the 100% mark. We should see them make this mark relatively very soon. WISCONSIN, MISSOURI, OHIO, and ILLINOIS still have a way to go to hit that 105% goal with only 27 days to make it happen. The Detachments of IOWA and MINNESOTA memberships still have their work cut out for them, for getting their memberships in.

Nationally when counting all five Regions in membership was just over 1% increase in renewals. We did hit an ALL TIME HIGH. National Membership Chairman Thom Skelley congratulates all Five Regions FOR MAKING THIS HAPPEN, as well as the 35 Detachments that have made 100% and the 12 Detachments that are over 105%.

We continue to make these great results because “BELIEVE AND SUCCEED” is what it takes in any endeavor. The proof is in the results of what we see, and the numbers of what we show.

Remember to keep doing the “BUDDY CHECKS” and always think of it as a WE must do. Continue to always “BE THE ONE” that answers that call, that can make a difference and create a smile. Stay #SAL-STRONG and make that 105% Target Date Goal by July 26.

 Central Region Membership Chairman

Share with us those veterans you've lost to suicide

The American Legion | June 26, 2023

September is Suicide Prevention Awareness Month, when mental health advocates, prevention organizations, survivors, allies, and community members come together to raise awareness about the stigmas associated with suicide, provide mental health resources, and share the message that suicide is preventable.

That is the mission behind The American Legion's Be the One initiative: to destigmatize asking for mental health support, provide peer-to-peer support and resources, and educate everyone on how they can Be the One.

During Suicide Prevention Awareness Month, The American Legion wants to put a face with the crisis that is veteran suicide. While there are several different numbers associated with the amount of monthly suicides, there are individuals behind the numbers – and families and friends left behind.

We're asking for those who have lost a veteran to suicide to share with us who that person was so we can honor him or her during September while also sharing resources available through Be the One and other entities.

We would like you to provide:

- A photo of the veteran, in uniform if possible;
- The veteran's name, branch of service and time of service, and date of birth and death; and
- Who that veteran is remembered by, e.g., "Loved and missed by his family."

We will share your submissions throughout the month as a way to pay tribute to them and, hopefully, prevent future suicides in the veteran community. Submissions can be made via email to sbrooks@legion.org.

White House announces $3.1 billion to address homelessness, including among veterans

Matthew Adams/Stars and Stripes | June 29, 2023

Tackling veteran homelessness is part of a White House announcement Thursday to spend $3.1 billion to combat the overall crisis through community support grants.

The new measure is “the largest-ever, single-year investment ... to help communities address homelessness,” the Biden administration said in a statement.

About 33,000 veterans across the country lack access to permanent housing, down 11% since 2020 and down 55% since 2010, according to the 2022 Point-in-Time Count released by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The VA has been addressing the issue of homeless veterans for the past two years with a target of placing 38,000 veterans into permanent housing. The VA exceeded that goal by finding more than 40,000 veterans a place to live in 2022.

The $3.1 billion will be provided to HUD’s Continuum of Care Program, which awards funds for community groups and local governments to help provide support to families facing the threat of homelessness.

The money will not be solely earmarked for veterans, but the White House is encouraging officials with the Continuum of Care program to work with participants to “coordinate with local Department of Veterans Affairs medical centers to ensure these funds are effectively supporting veterans and their families.”

Other efforts in the new investment include $11.5 million in legal services grants, a first of its kind, according to the White House, to help veterans obtain representation in landlord-tenant disputes, as well as assist in other court proceedings such as child support, custody, or estate planning.

VA.gov

“For veterans, legal support can be the difference between becoming homeless and having safe, stable housing,” VA Secretary Denis McDonough said in a statement. “With the award of these first-of-their-kind VA grants, more veterans will have the legal representation they deserve, which will increase their access to housing and employment.”

The Department of Labor Veterans' Employment and Training Service is being awarded more than $58 million to help connect homeless veterans with job opportunities. The money will go toward veterans learning occupational skills and participating in on-the-job training in fields such as manufacturing, construction, information technology and cybersecurity.

There also will be a new series of "boot camps" conducted by HUD and the VA to help VA medical centers and public housing agencies find veterans a place to live more quickly.

NJ Squadron 105 officers installed

Rusty Myers | June 12, 2023

Belleville, NJ – Sons of the American Legion (SAL) Squadron 105 of Belleville had its executive board and officers installed at the post home on Washington Avenue on Monday June 12. These officers were sworn in by American Legion Essex County Executive Committee Adjutant Henry DelTosto, and will serve until June 2024.

Squadron Commander Steve Sangemino, as well as Adjutant and Finance Officer Rusty Myers, were both elected to their fifth term as officers. 1st Vice Commander James Elsmore was elected to his second term, as was Joseph Florenza as Sargent-at-arms.

All of the other officers were either elected or appointed to their first terms. The Squadron elected 2nd Vice Commander Vincent Ferriole and 3rd Vice Commander Richard Vlasakakis, and the Commander appointed Anthony Noto as Historian, Carl Slaughter as Chaplain, and Robert Hildebrandt as Service Officer.

Squadron 105 had a banner year promoting the American Legion's 'Four Pillars' by putting over $24,000 into projects serving our veterans, the community, Americanism, and Children and Youth, and looks forward to an even bigger year of 'service before self' with our new leadership.

Florida Legion Riders 'give back' through motorcycle giveaway

The American Legion | June 27, 2023

During a visit to Sturgis, S.D., Department of Florida American Legion Rider Mitch Cooper saw the non-profit Wheels 4 Warriors raffle off a motorcycle for a veteran. Cooper, a past director of American Legion Riders Chapter 107 in Live Oak, Fla., came back to his state and shared what he saw with fellow Legion Rider Butch Deihl, who thought it was a great idea.

Then, in Deihl's words, "it just steamrolled from there," and in early June, those two and other American Legion Riders from Florida's 3rd District were able to make something similar happen at the local level. U.S. Navy veteran Billy Howard's name was drawn and was the recipient of a Suzuki Intruder trike.

Deihl – a member of Cherry Lake American Legion Post and ALR Chapter 224 in Madison, where the Riders' mantra "For the cause, not for the applause" originated – was able to get the motorcycle donated from a local widow of a veteran who was looking to get rid of the bike but had been unable to sell it.

"I called and told her what I wanted to do," Deihl said. "Thirty minutes later she texted me and said, 'Come pick it up. It's yours. I want to donate it to you.'"

The motorcycle was in need of repairs, so Chapter 224 conducted a fundraiser cookout that raised around $800. Post 107 donated $400. And then the donations, in one form or another, continued.

Post 383 in Old Town donated $500. Gainesville Harley-Davidson donated all the gear, while Tallahassee Harley-Davidson donated the rider safety course. Two insurance agencies provided the funds to cover the cost of insurance, another business provided back tires, and a mechanic at Extreme Bikes Custom in Pinetta provided the labor for the repairs free of charge.

“It was crazy,” Deihl said. “Everybody kicked in.”

The 3rd District put out the word they wanted to donate the motorcycle to a veteran; 12 veterans sent in applications to receive it. All the applications were received to ensure each had an honorable discharge, and then the names were put into a drawing.

Howard, a member of Post 224 who almost lost his arm in 1979 while serving, was the recipient through the drawing and was presented with the Suzuki during a June 3 event at Ellie Ray’s RV Resort and Lounge, which provided the venue free of charge.

Deihl said Howard, “was just ecstatic. He was just about in tears. You could hear it in his voice over the telephone when I called and told him. (And at the event), everyone was in tears. Billy was in tears. It was ridiculous.

“It just fills your heart with joy. I’ve felt a lot of things in my life, but not like that. I don’t know how to explain it. It’s just total joy.”

Deihl said the motorcycle giveaway was an opportunity “to give back. These veterans put their lives on the line for us and our country. So, if you can pay them back in any little kind of way, why not?”

Charlotte Knights manager has fond memories of Legion Baseball

Richard Walker | June 28, 2023

As Justin Jirschele grew up in tiny Clintonville, Wis., he knew American Legion Baseball was big — so big that the grandstands were packed for American Legion Post 63’s games in the city of 4,500.

And if Post 63 was successful, as it was when Jirschele played, the community swelled with pride.

“The biggest thing I remember is how much the city got behind us,” said Jirschele, a four-year minor leaguer in the Chicago White Sox organization who is now that organization's manager for the Charlotte Knights of the International League. "Winning the state title in back-to-back years and going out west and fundraising for a bus and a hotel meant a ton of money was needed for that.

"And how much does that say about a city like Clintonville to get behind us and make us feel special."

A three-sport standout in high school — he was an all-conference honoree in football, basketball, and baseball — Jirschele and his Post 63 teammates won consecutive Wisconsin Division II state titles in 2007 and 2008. The 2007 title was Clintonville's first since 1998.

The victories advanced Clintonville to a 2007 Great Plains Regional in Beulah, N.D., and 2008 Great Plains Regional in Pratt, Kan.

An infielder and pitcher for Post 63, he was team MVP each season and was named state tournament MVP in 2008.

In 2007, the American Legion Baseball season was so successful that he and several teammates missed the first week of high school football practice.

"Well, our football coach was also our baseball coach," Jirschele recalls. "So, he couldn't say no but he also knew we were missing the first week of training camp for football. He also knew most of us were three-sport athletes and he knew we'd be ready to go.

"It was fun and definitely a great experience."

Jirschele would eventually play college baseball at UW-Oshkosh in 2009 and at UW-Stevens Point from 2010 to 2012 before the White Sox signed him as a free agent in the summer of 2012.

A 5-foot-11, 195-pound second baseman, third baseman and outfielder, Jirschele played Rookie League for Great Falls, Mont.; Class A in Kannapolis, N.C.; High Class A in Winston-Salem, N.C.; Class AA in Birmingham, Ala.; and Class AAA in Charlotte, N.C.

His best season came for Winston-Salem in 2014 where he hit .315 in 40 games for the Carolina League team.

And after the 2015 season in which he played for Charlotte, Birmingham, and Winston-Salem; his career path changed.

As a hitting coach for Great Falls in 2015 and Kannapolis in 2016, his ability to help develop players led the White Sox to make him one of the youngest field managers in all of pro baseball at 27 years old in 2017 when he began a two-year stint as Kannapolis' manager.

After guiding Kannapolis to back-to-back playoff appearances, Jirschele was promoted to Winston-Salem in 2019, then Birmingham for the canceled 2020 season. He coached Birmingham in 2021 and 2022 before landing in Charlotte for the 2023 season.

Because of his busy professional schedule, Jirschele spends only his off seasons in his hometown. But he does remain in touch with many of his Legion Baseball teammates.

"Obviously we're all spread out around the country now," Jirschele said. "But we all grew up playing sports together and there's certainly a few guys that I stay in touch with. And we do talk about those memories and the joy we had and the joy the city brought to us.

"It was and still is a special time for all of us."

INDYCAR's hottest driver heads to Mid-Ohio in No. 10 American Legion Honda

The American Legion | June 29, 2023

Chip Ganassi Racing's Alex Palou has been dominant since May in the NTT INDYCAR SERIES, winning three of four races — including two in the No. 10 American Legion Honda featuring the Be the One initiative. But it's not just a recent surge that's got Palou holding a commanding advantage in the series' point standings.

Palou has been incredibly consistent all season, finishing in the top 10 in every race and pulling in seven top-five performances. He currently holds a 74-point lead over CGR teammate Marcus Ericsson in the INDYCAR SERIES points standings heading into this weekend's Honda Indy 200 at Mid-Ohio.

"This has always been a really good race for us and the team in general," said Palou, who finished second at Mid-Ohio last year and third in 2021, via CGR media. "The atmosphere is great and it's a Honda race, so we want to go get good results for them. It's a road course that I love because it's really tricky, and it's not easy to get a good lap around there with things being so crazy in sectors two and three.

"But after a good few races that we've had, we want to continue on the roll that we're having and score more wins."

Chip Ganassi Racing, as a team, has also been dominant this season, leading the INDYCAR SERIES in wins (four), podiums (eight) and laps led (254 out of 965). All five CGR drivers have now led a lap this year. Ericsson is the only other driver besides Palou with a top-10 finish in every race. He'll also carry American Legion branding on his livery this weekend, as will CGR teammate and NTT INDYCAR SERIES rookie Marcus Armstrong. Ericsson said he enjoys Mid-Ohio, where he finished second in 2021. "It's quite fun, especially the section between turns four and nine. It's very technical and a key part of the track," he said. "The race weekend atmosphere is something I always look forward to with people out there camping. For us, we've had some good memories at the track finishing second two years ago, quite close to winning. I think we should be strong there and I'm really looking forward to it."

Despite only driving street and road courses, Armstrong has managed two top-10s and still leads the rookie point standings while driving the No. 11 Ridge-line Lubricants Honda. He's looking forward the Mid-Ohio road course.

"It looks very technical and quite similar to a circuit that I grew up driving in New Zealand with a lot of elevation changes and difficult to maximize," Armstrong said. "I think it will take a few laps to get used to during practice, but after that, I'm confident that we will make the best of it."

Also hitting the Mid-Ohio course this weekend with Be the One branding on his car is CGR developmental driver Kyffin Simpson, who will compete in the INDY NXT by Firestone Grand Prix at Mid-Ohio. Two weeks ago, Simpson was top in one of the practice sessions and then captured the pole in record-setting fashion in the INDYNXT SERIES by Firestone Grand Prix at Road America.

But in Turn 1 during the race, Simpson went wide and launched all four wheels into the air after hitting a curb on the exit of the first turn. He slipped to seventh place after the incident and wound up eighth. It was still his second-best finish of the season and moved him up to 13th in the INDY NXT points standings.

This weekend's 80-lap, 180.64-mile race takes place on the 2.258-mile, 13-turn natural-terrain road course that includes elevation changes, high-speed corners, flowing corners, tight corners, a narrow (40 feet) racing ribbon and a challenging entry to pit lane.

This weekend's broadcast schedule (all times ET):

Friday, June 30 – 3:05-4:20 p.m., NTT INDYCAR SERIES Practice 1 (Peacock).

Saturday, July 1 – 9:45-10:45 a.m., NTT INDYCAR SERIES Practice 2; 2:45-4:15 p.m. NTT INDYCAR SERIES qualifications (both Peacock).

Sunday, July 2 – 10:30-11 a.m., NTT INDYCAR SERIES warmup (Peacock); 11:30 a.m.-12:40 p.m., INDY NXT race (Peacock); 1:30-4 p.m., NTT INDYCAR SERIES race (USA and Peacock).

NTT INDYCAR SERIES Notes:

- The Honda Indy 200 at Mid-Ohio Presented by the 2023 Accord Hybrid will be the ninth race of the 2023 season. There have been five different winners in nine NTT INDYCAR SERIES races this season. Marcus Ericsson (Streets of St. Petersburg), Josef Newgarden (Texas Motor Speedway) and Kyle (Indianapolis 500), Kyle

David D. Traylor

CARTHAGE, New York (WWNY) - David D. Traylor, 55, of Carthage, passed away peacefully at home, with his loving wife Mary by his side on Saturday morning, June 24, 2023.

David was born on August 16, 1967, in Carthage, the oldest son of Douglas and Nancy A. (Gokey) Traylor. He attended Carthage schools and graduated in 1985. He attained a CDL and worked locally at FABCO, Black River, Farney's Home Center, Deer River and at Fischercast, Wiertown until their closing in 2003. He graduated at the top of his class and received a degree in HV AC-R in 2005. David married Mary Ann Tooker on August 24, 1991, at the Carthage United Methodist Church. They shared their first home in Herrings where they were both volunteer firefighters with the Herrings Fire Dept. In 1998, they moved to County Route 42 where they opened their business, Root 42 Rustics. They worked side by side until his illness in 2019. He loved making wood creations and giving them as gifts or donating them to local benefits and fund raisers. David was an active member of the Sons of the American Legion Post #789 of Carthage. You could find him volunteering in the kitchen at fund raisers and benefits. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need, always with a smile on his face and expecting nothing in return.

David was a die-hard Buffalo Bills fan all his adult life, traveling to games with his wife and friends. He was their biggest fan, always hoping for that Super Bowl win.

David loved the outdoors, hunting and fishing since he was a young boy. He enjoyed hiking and kayaking with his wife. Together they enjoyed the views of 9 mountains in the Adirondacks. He shared his love of adventure and took his grandchildren to the top of 3 of those mountains. Spending time with his grandchildren was his biggest joy in life. Spending summers in the pool with them, family BBQ's and sleepovers were his happiest moments.

The hardest part of losing his 4-year battle with ALS, was knowing he was leaving his grandchildren and would miss their growing up. He is so proud of them and loves them deeply.

David is survived by his wife of 32 years, Mary, a daughter: Sarah (Tim) Roes; 3 Grandchildren, Olivia, Henry, and Emelyn Roes; his parents; a sister, Catherine (Richard) Runkles of Troutman, NC; a brother: Michael (Jennifer) Traylor of Carthage; several Aunts, Uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Per David's wishes, there will be no calling hours, service, or funeral. A celebration of life will be held in August. Arrangements are with the Bezanilla-McGraw Funeral Home. To leave a condolence, go to www.bezanillaafh.com.

David would like to thank the community for coming together during his time of need, showing their love and support while he was traveling on his last journey. "I am thankful for all I have; my choices took me where I was meant to be in life. I have no regrets."

AMERICAN LEGION

Staying on top

June 28, 2023

Dear American Legion Family members and friends,

I have always been a guy who sees the glass as half-full, not half-empty. So, when it comes to our 2023 membership year, I'll start by celebrating the positive.

As of last week, The American Legion welcomed 77,074 new members to posts across the country and overseas. This exceeds the goal of 75,000 new members that I called for during my election on Sept. 1, 2022. There are still a few days left in this membership year, so I strongly encourage our posts to cross the finish line with a sprint rather than a stroll. Here is an easy opportunity to join online.

Notice I said, "glass half-full." On the flipside of this great growth of new members, our renewal rate needs dramatic improvement.

There are 172,850 members who paid dues to their posts in 2022 but have not yet renewed. At the department headquarters level, we have 21,343 non-renewals. The American Legion recognizes that every year some members will pass away and join post everlasting. This is why we set our renewal goal at 90%, instead of 100%. Even so, our current retention rate is 88.65%.

In theory, it's more difficult to recruit a new member than it is to keep an existing one. The existing member has already been convinced that The American Legion is worth joining. When people decide not to renew, chances are it's due to a lack of engagement from their posts and fellow Legionnaires. They at one time believed that The American Legion offered programs, advocacy, service, and camaraderie which outweighed its reasonable annual dues. Or maybe they just need one more reminder, from you. Online renewal is an easy click away.

I absolutely believe that we can achieve 90% renewals through better engagement. If a post only reaches out to its members in the form of a renewal notice, the results will be predictable. Newsletters are nice, but phone calls and visits are even better. Let each and every veteran in your post know that they are valued members of your American Legion Family. Don't pressure people to go to meetings if they clearly have no desire to attend but let them know that you will always welcome their input and participation.

With more than 12,000 American Legion posts worldwide, not every post is a good fit for every Legionnaire. If conflicts or geographical issues are standing in the way, encourage the member to find a home at a post which is more convenient.

Don't listen to the naysayers who believe The American Legion is in decline. Major media outlets have been predicting our demise for over a half-century now. While the veterans population is significantly smaller than it was following the Vietnam War, The American Legion is still the nation's largest and most powerful veterans service organization. Let's keep it that way.

Vincent J. "Jim" Troiola, National Commander
The American Legion

Celebrate with consideration on the 4th

The American Legion | June 30, 2023

Across the country, in communities large and small, American Legion posts play an important role in celebrating the nation's independence. In Indianapolis, American Legion Mall is the site of the city's main downtown fireworks show. The Newport Harbor, Calif., Post 291 Yacht Club is gearing up for its annual "Old Glory Boat Parade" on July 4. Hundreds of other communities enlist help from Legionnaires to put on their celebrations.

Fourth of July feeds, parades and celebrations frequently culminate with fireworks shows that light up the skies and produce bangs and booms. For veterans coping with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), those displays can be a problem.

"As beautiful as they are, the sounds, smells and shockwaves of fireworks can be triggering for veterans with PTSD," said Annie Tang, a staff psychologist at Edward Hines Jr. VA Hospital in Chicago. "These can bring up emotional and physiological reactions, and bring up trauma memories from the past, which can bring up intense anxiety and fear."

Blanton-Thompson American Legion Post 155 in Crystal River, Fla., is offering its second annual "Escape the Fireworks" alternative event with music, food and beverages and no explosions, flashes, or fire. The event was established last year following the suicide of a local veteran whose PTSD was presumed to have been triggered by fireworks explosions after Fourth of July displays.

VA's National Center for PTSD reports that Fourth of July events can trigger combat trauma. "Even though fireworks are meant to entertain us, it is not uncommon for the sounds, intense light or smells to cause distress," VA states on the center's website. "Those who have gone through a trauma that included explosions, gunfire, loud noises or fire may be more likely to find fireworks to be a reminder – a trigger or cue – of such past events."

WSBT 22 in Traverse City, Mich., reported in 2021 that for some veterans, it is not the scheduled fireworks shows that trigger PTSD "or even the days surrounding it. It's the ones that randomly go off weeks before expected." In some communities, signs are placed in yards to alert neighbors to be considerate of veterans who may have difficulty with 4th of July explosions and flashes.

The Montana VA Health Care System offered some tips and resources for veterans with PTSD who are concerned about the effects of the Fourth of July:

- If fireworks impact you, reach out to your loved ones and support systems. Let them know that you will need them to check in and be there for you.
- Veterans in crisis and those concerned about them can call the Veterans Crisis Line at 988 (press 1) to talk with qualified responders or visit veteranscrisisline.net.

- Veterans experiencing PTSD can access a free app on their smartphones called PTSD Coach, which includes coping mechanisms for PTSD.
- Earplugs, headphones, and white noise machines can help block out the noise of fireworks. Consider heading out of town to quieter places or where fireworks are not allowed.
