America, you can do better than this.”

Dear American Legion Family Members and Friends,

In this era of uncertainty, one thing remains absolute: No community service organization responds more effectively in times of despair than The American Legion.

The desecration of national war memorials, which honor veterans of all races, is an absolute disgrace. The heroes honored by these monuments fought for social justice and freedom for all.

Moreover, America’s veterans, who witnessed horrific violence in theaters around the world, should not have to see the same death and destruction here at home.

Those who break the law, whether they are police officers or violent protesters, should be arrested and prosecuted.

The American Legion has always believed in equality for all. We also believe in the decency of the vast majority of law enforcement officers. Those who break the law, whether they are police officers or violent protesters, should be arrested and prosecuted.

The coronavirus has placed barricades around nearly every facet of our way of life in America. It has halted social gatherings, closed our schools and many businesses, and threatened our nation’s blood supply.

But American Legion Family members have admirably served our communities, states, and nation through this turbulent time. And perhaps there was no greater evidence of this than on our most hallowed holiday, Memorial Day.

Post members were active in their communities by making sure that flags adorned the graves of veterans. In Bozeman, Mont., American Legion Post 14 placed more than 2,500 flags on gravesites. “It’s a pretty special time to gather with others in this community and it gives us all, especially those of us who've served, a moment to thank the community for the way they support us year after year when we do the events this week," Post 14 Legionnaire Rick Gale said.

Legion Family members and community friends from around the nation joined me in honoring the fallen at dusk in the first Candles of Honor. I look forward to growing this into an annual tradition.

And American Legion posts continued to help families get food safely.

Flag Day, too, will be a different celebration this year. Gone will be face-to-face lessons in flag etiquette that Legionnaires regularly provide to Sons of The American Legion members, Boy Scouts, and other youth groups. And Flag Day ceremonies will be different, perhaps virtual or scaled back to adhere to social distancing norms.

But these obstacles won't deter The American Legion from continuing to serve our communities. We adapt. We overcome.

Keep sharing the stories of how your post is persevering during these challenging times on our Legiontown page and let us know how you plan to honor Flag Day this year.

There are many other ways that Legionnaires can have a meaningful impact on their communities while adhering to social distancing guidelines. Among them:

- Keep checking on veterans in your communities to see if they need any assistance. If you have not already, please reference the new Buddy Check kit, which has been enhanced to better serve senior members of our veteran community, who are at the highest risk of COVID-19.
- Work with your local American Red Cross chapter on sponsoring a blood drive to help fill the critical need.

Stay safe, my friends and comrades.

For God and country,

James W. "Bill" Oxford
National Commander

Pray for America

Heavenly Father, We Pray:

To those who have taken up arms in anger or revenge or even in the cause of justice, grant the grace of conversion to the path of peaceful dialogue and constructive collaboration.

To the innocent who live in the shadow of war and terror, especially the frightened children, be a shelter and strength, their haven and hope.

And to those who have already lost their lives as victims of human cruelty and chemical warfare, open wide your arms and enfold them all in the embrace of your compassion, healing, and everlasting life,

In your name, AMEN.

"Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends." – John 15:13

The situation in our nation should be a matter of concern for all citizens. In the midst of a global health pandemic, chaos has taken to the streets in the form of riots in cities across our great nation. Many of these riots have started as peaceful protests, a right protected under the Constitution. The message is clear, people want change. There is also a clear message, some people want destruction, vandalism, and confusion. The chaos and riots have been caused by small groups of people who may have a different agenda. How can we help?

As Sons of The American Legion, we are obligated “to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America.” We must do this “to maintain law and order.”

How do we do this? We need to do whatever we can “to foster and perpetuate a true spirit of Americanism.” We must “inculcate a sense of obligation to the Community, State, and Nation.”

To help get the message of the day out, we should strive “to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses” as we “safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy” and “consecrate and sanctify our friendship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.”

These words have never meant so much, not only to Sons of The American Legion, the entire American Legion Family, but to our nation.

I believe in and support the First Amendment of the Constitution. I believe in peaceful protest. I believe in freedom of speech and freedom of the press. I believe in America!

What I don't believe in is destruction, vandalism, assault. I don't want to see buildings and monuments spray painted. I don't want people to be afraid. I don't want a strain to be placed on public services, including police, fire, EMS, public works. I don't want to have our military placed in cities across our country. I want peace! I want equality! I want justice! I want freedom! I want democracy!

Let's all work TOGETHER to keep the United States of America the greatest country on the planet. We are a country that has been through a lot in its history. Let's not forget that history. If we all work TOGETHER, things will improve, and we will be united again.

We are ONE Nation under God.

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

Membership Update

Ten days and counting. That's how much time we have to reach the June 17 National Target Date of 100%. I KNOW WE CAN DO IT!!!

If we have members who have not renewed yet, now is the time to go ask why. If he needs help, help him. If there was a misunderstanding, fix it. We need to make each member feel needed and important. Who's next?

110% For those who have or are close to making quota, please don't forget the Central Region Challenge Date of 110% on June 30. One way we can all hit this goal is by making sure we have all of our renewals taken care of. Renewals are necessary to keep our organization moving forward. Just as important are our new members.

If you are planning a “last push” please let me know and I will help however I can. We all want to hit quota, so why not this week. Who's next?

Longtime National Judge Advocate Philip B. Onderdonk passes

The American Legion
JUN 02, 2020

Philip B. Onderdonk Jr., who served 35 years as American Legion national judge advocate, passed away June 1 after a valiant battle with cancer. He was 77.

The U.S. Army veteran of the Vietnam War and member of American Legion Post 183 in Parkville, Md., retired in 2018 from the national office he had held since 1983. He was the eighth national judge advocate in the organization's history and the longest-serving constitutional officer.

As chief legal counsel for The American Legion, Onderdonk Jr. ensured that the organization's National Constitution and Bylaws were upheld; the American Legion emblem was protected; national meetings were properly conducted; contracts and media releases were reviewed for legal compliance; and friend-of-the-court – amicus curiae – briefs were filed in support of positions, policies and resolutions from the nation's largest organization of wartime veterans.

Onderdonk Jr.'s work to protect military and veterans memorials and monuments that contain religious symbols was nationally recognized in 2015. That year, at The American Legion National Convention in Baltimore, Liberty Legal Institute presented him with the first Philip B. Onderdonk Jr. Religious Freedom Award, which continues to be presented annually by the institute.

"This award is for those that have given sacrifice and had success in defending what our founders called our first freedom – religious freedom,” Liberty Legal Institute President and CEO Kelly Shackelford said when Onderdonk Jr. was surprised with the first award named in his honor. “(Onderdonk) has been instrumental in leadership and what The American Legion has done in standing to defend attacks against veterans memorials across our country.”

During his tenure, Onderdonk Jr. was also deeply involved with legislation that created the U.S. Court of Veterans Appeals in 1988, giving veterans judicial recourse to dispute VA disability claims decisions.

National American Legion officers and staff who worked with Onderdonk Jr. remember him for his civility, legal knowledge, devotion to The American Legion and wit.

“Phil was a friend who would do anything in the world to help you when needed,” American Legion National Adjutant Daniel S. Wheeler said. “He was loyal, loved The American Legion, and was a kind and gentle man. He had a great sense of humor and loved telling the same jokes over and over. It was part of his charm. I will miss him.”

U.S. Navy veteran Kevin J. Bartlett was appointed national judge advocate on Jan. 1, 2018, to succeed Onderdonk Jr. “On June 1, 2020, The American Legion lost a great man who I was fortunate enough to call my colleague and friend,” Bartlett said. “From the first time we met in 2002 until the last time we talked, we had numerous conversations, debates and discussions regarding so many legal issues. I will miss him and those talks.”

Onderdonk Jr. continued to serve as a legal consultant for the organization until August 2018.

At the time he announced his retirement, Onderdonk Jr. reflected on his time with The American Legion National Headquarters. That interview and video can be viewed here.

Condolences to his surviving wife Ann may be sent to: Ann Onderdonk, c/o American Legion National Judge Advocate’s Office, PO Box 1055, Indianapolis, IN, 46206.

Celebrate Flag Day, June 14

The American Legion

Flag Day is next Sunday, and The American Legion – a great flag advocate from its beginning – has plenty of resources available to help celebrate.

A guided speech for Flag Day is available online for Legion members to use during their community celebrations, or post ceremonies, and emphasize what the organization represents. They are not meant to be recited verbatim; members are greatly encouraged to amend them to fit the situation.

Other American Legion resources for posts to use on Flag Day include the U.S. Flag Code and “Let’s Be Right on Flag Etiquette” booklet for purchase; and the Flag Advocacy subsection on the national website, which discusses flag FAQs, myths and more.

The annual Pause for the Pledge will take place at 7:00 p.m. EDT. Click here to read the National Commander’s Message from the June issue of The American Legion Magazine, “The flag’s meaning to our forefathers.”

Legislative Update

Grassroots

The National Legislative Division (NLD) uses VoterVoice as its advocacy platform for connecting American Legion members with members of Congress. From May 25th to May 29th, 2020 one hundred and forty-three (143) member subscribed to receive action alerts while three (3) unsubscribed. There are now 22,214 members and supporters signed up to receive action alerts. Projected effectiveness of our next advocacy alert campaign is minimal without further support.

On Tuesday, June 2nd, the President of the United States sent a memorandum to the Secretary of Defense authorizing the extension of Title 32 orders for members of the National Guard until August 21, 2020. This will allow for our Guardsmen to receive their well-deserved educational and retirement benefits that vest at 90 days. The NLD ended its grassroots campaign entitled Commander: Extend the National Guard on Friday, June 5th. The campaign resulted in a total of 227 messages sent from our members to 57 congressional offices. Of the 203 members that took action, 200 were first time advocates and 3 had taken action on a previous Legion grassroots campaign.

Sons of The American Legion
Child Welfare Foundation
Donations Report

Aprons are currently available. The suggested donation price is $20 per apron. Since we will be shipping aprons, I would like to ask that if at all possible please consider consolidating your orders into one large order for a detachment or squadron. This will help cut down on the processing time and the cost of shipping. If you would like to donate to help defray the cost of shipping that would greatly be appreciated.

Aprons will be shipped once the donation has been received. Please make sure to include the following information; number of aprons and where you would like them shipped too.

Please send donations to the below address
