

Round-Up

The Newsletter of Sons of The American Legion Central Region

Volume 2 - Issue 69 - February 21, 2021

We need your help

The Daytona 500, Valentine's Day, Presidents' Day, Fat Tuesday, Ash Wednesday. What a busy week we just had. Last week I challenged each of our Central Region Detachments to submit a minimum of 500 cards. Did you accept the challenge? If you did not reach the 500 goal, how many did you really get? Just because the week is over, we should not stop on our membership drive.

For the past year and a half, National Commander has had goals of recruiting, retaining, and reinstating to reach 400,000 members, a renewal rate above 95%, and to obtain 105% by the National Convention.

These goals were not set to discourage anyone or to make things more difficult than usual. They were set to help grow our organization, to obtain more members, and to get the message of Sons of The American Legion and the American Legion Family out to more people. They were set so we could continue Serving Those Who Served...Full Steam Ahead.

Think back to Indianapolis and the National Convention. Did you accept Commander Bolt's challenge? Are you helping with your Squadron's membership program? Are YOUR dues paid? The answer should be yes to each of these questions.

One thing that we all need to do a better job at is asking for help. Has anyone from your Squadron asked you to help with the membership program? Sometimes, especially in large Squadrons, membership can be a full-time job. Sometimes our Membership Chairmen need help but may not ask. Let's try something different, ask him if you can help. The more people we can get involved in our membership program, the faster we will reach quota+, the faster we will get new members, and the faster we can move to other programs.

It could be as easy as helping with Buddy Checks and reminding delinquent members that it's time to pay dues. It could be helping to process cards. It could be just being there for support. Help your Membership Chairman in any way you can and in a way that will be beneficial to your Squadron and your Detachment. Who's next?

One way you can help is to learn how to use MySAL. Your Membership Chairman and your Squadron will benefit from it's use, and the time spent may be drastically reduced by using MySAL. This tool also allows Squadrons to see members who have not renewed, which is a great way to reinstate former members.

MySAL also offers instant payment to the organization and will make your membership numbers more accurate. All I ask is that every Squadron sign-up and try it. After a few transmittals if you don't like it, then go back to the old way, but without at least trying, you will never know what you are missing, and how easy MySAL is to use. Will you please try it? Who's next?

MEMBERSHIP DATABASE

Is there room for improvement in our Membership? Out of the eight Detachments in our Region, six are above 71%. This is a great accomplishment, but could we all be higher?

Holding first place in renewals is great! Currently, we are at 67.49% in our renewal efforts. We need to continue that trend and move the USS Central even farther ahead of the rest of the fleet. Remind your members how important they are and ask your those who have not submitted their 2021 dues to do so right away. And when they do, please get those cards submitted/transmitted; please do not hold cards. Get them processed and turned-in within a week.

In our other race, the USS Central is in second place in the membership standings at 71.79%. Again, when you get cards, get them processed and submitted/transmitted within a week.

If you look at the numbers, you will see something interesting. The Southern Region has a total of 33,159 members, the Western Region has 17,030, and the Midwest Region has 20,912. For the past two years, the Southern Region has held first place, and congratulations to our Sons there for all their hard work.

Here's what's interesting. The Central Region has 34,437 members who have yet to pay their 2021 dues as shown on the February 18, 2021 membership report. In comparison, the Eastern Region has 47,989 members to renew.

As you can see, the Central Region and the Eastern Region are the two largest, accounting for a total of 278,993 members. The goal for the entire organization is 378,550.

Being a large region makes it tough to take the lead based on percentage, but it is not impossible. Last week I asked for each Detachment to submit 500 membership cards. I realize that numbers will not reflect submissions instantly due to processing at Department/Detachment Headquarters, mailing delays, and processing at National Headquarters. The best thing to do is ask if everyone did what they could to get closer to quota. It's time to step up our efforts and close the gap. If we want to take the lead, it is going to take work from everyone.

We need your help! Who's next?

Is Round-Up worth the effort? Each week, I sit down over a couple days and put together this newsletter. Adding membership and renewal numbers to the spreadsheet, finding articles, thinking of new things to say, and a host of other things, and it takes a lot of time.

On Sunday, the final prep is done, proofreading to look for mistakes, and making sure the layout is just right. Sometimes finding the right information to pass along takes more time than I would like, but I always thought it was worth the effort. I thought this was a great way to get our message out to not only Sons, but to members of The Family.

We have a circulation of over 1,700, but according to our stats, less than 25% open the email. Is this correct? If so, I ask again, is Round-Up worth the effort?

I will continue to monitor the stats and see how things trend. Hopefully, our opens will increase, and more of our subscribers will get the messages we put out. If not, a change may be needed.

One way to help is to submit information you would like to see published in Round-Up. Let's not be shy. Get your message out there too. Fundraisers, events, whatever is relevant to Sons of The American Legion. I've said it before and I will say it again now, don't be afraid to blow your own horn! Over the next month, we will see if the effort is worth the effort.

Individual Recruitment Awards are available again this year. All you have to do is recruit five (5) new members, complete the form that appears later in this edition, and send it in. Last year we had almost 50 in the Central Region, with only 12 submitted so far for 2021.

You are all out there working on recruiting, so make sure to fill out the paperwork and get your pin. Who's next?

Keep up your outstanding work and remember why you joined. If you need help with anything, do not hesitate to email Doc Pfeiffer or me. Have a great week!

As a major winter storm wreaks havoc, it's time for American Legion members to step in and perform wellness checks on older veterans

Dear American Legion Family and Friends,

I hope this email finds you well, safe, and warm. Many of you are being affected by the current winter storm that is wreaking havoc throughout the country.

The storm has shut down major roads, created power failures for millions and forced many to stay in their homes amid record cold temperatures.

Countless veterans are stuck in their homes. They may be facing dire situations due to the storm. They may need assistance with staying warm, getting food and water, or having a prescription delivered.

That is why I am making this urgent appeal to you to immediately launch Buddy Checks in your areas. As veterans, we cannot let our buddies down, especially in such a critical time.

Check in with veterans to see how your post can provide much-needed assistance to them during this challenging time. To assist Legionnaires, we have toolkits available for you to use. They were produced with the pandemic in mind. However, they can easily be adapted at this critical time.

Review and download the kit at this link.

Join me in reaching out to veterans, as well as friends, neighbors, and relatives in your community.

It's quite likely that these check-ins will save lives.

For God and Country,

The impact of an American Legion service officer

By Henry Howard
February 18, 2021

After two deployments to Iraq, Army veteran Shawn Meyer struggled with integrating back into civilian life.

First, it was gambling. Then his addiction turned to drinking.

“I didn't adjust well,” recalled Meyer, who was a Bradley mechanic with 1st Armored Division 26 out of Baumholder, Germany. “I battled addiction a lot. I went to drinking heavily to just forget about everything. And I would wake up and I would drink and I would go to sleep and I would drink. And I wouldn't remember anything. So I felt good because I didn't remember anything. I had nothing on my mind. I was not dealing with anything that had happened or that I'd seen.”

He says he “screwed up my life for a good 10 years,” before getting sober Sept. 29, 2013. But then the horrors started over again.

“I started remembering and the depression, the panic, the anxiety, my previous life, it all came back to me and I had no vice to go to,” said Meyer, who lives in Brandon, S.D.

Even though he was skeptical of the Department of Veterans Affairs based on a previous experience, he put his trust in Courtney VanZanten, the service officer for The American Legion Department of South Dakota.

“I need help,” he told her.

As an accredited service officer through The American Legion, VanZanten is trained to help veterans like Meyer. Some veterans need to enroll in the VA. Others need assistance with complicated benefits claims. There are a myriad of tasks service officers perform for free for any veteran.

VanZanten helped Meyer get enrolled in VA, a process which means that in the coming months he will obtain benefits he previously did not receive. For his PTSD, anxiety and depression related to his service, his disability rating will be 70 percent.

“She said she could help me,” recalled Meyer. “She came and did all the paperwork right there at my convenience. I can't go too many places, I don't feel safe. So she came right to my house and we did the paperwork and she took care of everything for me. The award is nice, but I learned a long time ago money won't buy you happiness. Courtney gives me hope.”

VanZanten, an Air Force veteran, has been a service officer for about five years. Like all American Legion service officers, her training and support are funded by The American Legion's Veterans & Children Foundation (V&CF).

The foundation provides critical training for service officers so they can remain updated on different procedures, benefits and more so they can assist veterans.

“It's world-class training,” she said. “We get up-to-date training on court law coming through. Great examples of the latest cases that could make an impact on our veterans. When Blue Water Navy rolled through, we were right on top of getting our veterans into the VA. When hearing loss claims were opened up to National Guardsmen and Reserve, we were on top of it.”

VanZanten is appreciative of the support from those who support her work through donations to V&CF. (To make a contribution, please visit this page.)

It's crucial to have information roll down to us through the training,” she explained. “And being told how to present cases in the best way possible, so when it does get into the regional offices in the VA, or if you do have a case that makes it up to the BVA, you're presenting the best case possible for your veteran. That's the kind of training that we're provided. That's the advantage of going through an American Legion service officer.”

Rodney Smith knows the importance of VanZanten's work.

Smith, a Brown Water Navy vet from the Vietnam War, had a memorable encounter the first time he visited VA in 1988.

“I went down to the VA and had a horrible experience,” he recalled. “And to follow up, they sent me back to a doctor and I ended up in the women's clinic to see a gynecologist that they were contracting with. I said I'd never, ever be back.”

At the urging of his uncle, Smith returned to VA about 20 years later and had a better experience. But it wasn't until he connected with VanZanten that he realized all his benefits.

“I got my glasses through them and basically I was pretty much done,” he said. “I'd go in occasionally for the annual physical. That was about it. When Courtney became our Legion veteran service officer, it was just the difference between night and day. She'd fill out the papers, she knew what questions to ask. She worked very hard on my behalf.”

With her help Smith, who is a diabetic, now get his insulin from VA. He's also had two surgeries and acupuncture to cure a shoulder blade that bothered him for 20 years. And that's not all.

“They also found an aneurysm and part of that was with Courtney's pushing,” he said. “I said I wasn't getting enough air, I was breathless. She kept telling me that I need to push it. I need to get back into VA and I need to follow up on this. Without her pushing, I never would've done that. They found an enlarged aorta coming out my heart and they called it an aneurysm, which scared the hell out of me at first.”

The aneurysm seems to be under control now. If an August check doesn't reveal any changes, Smith should be in the clear.

With VanZanten's assistance, Smith's disability rating has increased from 10 percent to 70 percent.

“It's about the most important things in the VA system, the Legion system,” he said. “Without the help of Courtney and other service officers around the state and around the country, it'd just be a mess. I was an educator for 22 years and I hate paperwork. Having someone who knows the system and knows which paperwork I should have, it's just been unbelievable.”

“Courtney makes it easy because she knows what questions to ask and she does it in a conversational tone, manner and draws things out that I wasn't sure I'd ever say to another human.”

Serving veterans like Smith and Meyer fulfill VanZanten, who is commander of American Legion Post 136 in Chester, S.D.

“It's pretty incredible,” she said. “This is an incredibly rewarding position. I care deeply about all of my veterans. My work with the Legion is very important to me. To know that it has such a resounding impact, not only on my veterans, but on their lives, their spouse's lives, their family's lives, and therefore the lives of those in their communities, it's pretty awesome.”

Instructions

Throughout the year, it is necessary for National to contact squadrons regarding membership renewals, awards, and general communications. In addition, National receives daily requests for post and squadron information from members and potential new members or others who are looking for information about The American Legion at the local level. Maintaining your squadron's current information with the National Headquarters has become more important than ever.

Completing an annual Squadron Data Report (SDR) is necessary to inform your Department & Detachment and National Headquarters of pertinent information regarding your squadron and, most importantly, membership renewal information. Complete an annual SDR even if your squadron information has not changed. Any information that has changed can be indicated by checking either the "CHANGE OR CORRECTION" boxes.

Squadron information will be maintained with National's records and published on the legion.org and mysal.org websites and through the "Post Locator" feature. Members who are traveling or have moved, or simply want to transfer, frequently refer to the Post Locator for assistance.

Remember to inform your Department & Detachment Headquarters any time a change is made throughout the year.

Each question for the SDR requires specific information. Each question requires the following:

- 1) Enter the actual physical location of the squadron's location.
- 2) Enter the mailing address of the squadron (if different than the physical address). This should be the address where the squadron receives all mail and parcels.
- 3) Enter the dues mailing address that is to appear on the membership renewal notices. It may or may not be the same as the regular mailing or physical address of the squadron.
- 4) Write the dues amount each member pays for the current membership year. If your dues are changing, write the effective date of the new rate. Unless noted otherwise, an effective date of July 1st will be entered to coincide with the first renewal notice of the new membership year. Indicate your junior and dual dues rates, include the maximum age the junior rate is valid, i.e., 18, 19, 20, 21 years of age, etc. Any district or county per capita should be included in the squadron dues for each member. The squadron will be responsible for paying any local district or county per capita dues.
- 5) Enter the business telephone number of the squadron. (Do not use a personal phone number of a member.)
- 6) Enter the fax telephone number of the squadron, if applicable.
- 7) Enter the squadron email address, if applicable. Enter the email address that is regularly monitored.
- 8) Enter the URL of the squadron website, if applicable.
- 9) Enter the name of the squadron Facebook page, if applicable.
- 10) Enter the date and time of your regularly scheduled squadron meeting. (Ex: 2nd Wednesday @ 7:00pm)

The Annual Squadron Data Report must be signed at the bottom of the page by the Squadron Adjutant or Commander. Unsigned reports will be returned for an authorized signature.

The Annual Squadron Data Report must be forwarded to your Department & Detachment and National Headquarters no later than May 1st in order for squadron information to be processed in time for the first renewal notice.

If there is a subsequent change in the squadron's contact information or a change in the dues amount, the squadron must notify their Department & Detachment Headquarters immediately. National Headquarters will not be responsible for reporting incorrect information if the proper notification was not received or if notification was not received in advance of the established deadlines.

NOTICE TO DEPARTMENTS & DETACHMENTS: All annual SDRs must be received at National by May 1st in order to be processed prior to printing the first renewal notices. Please forward as quickly as possible to IT/Data Services after receipt from the squadron; this will help ease processing at National.
